

Identity and Character in China and The Netherlands

Symposium and Exhibition

27 January 2020

16:00 – 18:00 The Hague University of Applied Sciences
Johanna Westerdijkplein 75, 2521 EN The Hague

Chinese New Year – the Year of the Rat – is celebrated at The Hague University with a small symposium about Chinese Identity. In addition, Het Taalmuseum will present the exhibition 'Full of Character'. This symposium is organized in co-operation with the Vereniging Nederland-China (VNC).

Moderator: Gwendolyn Bates - chairperson Society teachers Chinese Language & Culture

Ardi Bouwers – sinologist:
'New Narratives on China's Identity'

Jeroen Wiedenhof – sino-linguist:
'Full of Character'

Free entry! Both presentations are in English, but Dutch is also spoken during discussions.

新年快乐
HAPPY
Chinese
NEW YEAR
2020
YEAR OF THE RAT